Giffluence

Giffluence is a website that connects retailers to non-profit organizations through ecommerce. Retailers sell their products through links on their site that allow us to track every purchase and donate a percentage of each purchase to our customers choosing.

Retailers specify the percentage to be donated to the non-profits. Each link states how much of each purchase goes to the non-profits.

iGive

Shop at the more than 400 merchants on iGive.com, places like Barnes and Noble, Lands' End and Amazon.com. Up to 26% of each purchase goes to the Houston Food Bank.

It's easy...simply go to iGive.com and register for free.

Buy a gift for someone and give to a good cause. When you shop online at giftback 10% of your purchase goes to charity; the recipient is notified by a card message that a portion of their gift was donated to support the Houston Food Bank.
