Jazz up your food drive with some creativity!

Here are some ideas for fun ways to raise food and funds or come up with your own way to get your community involved!

- Event Admission
  Reduce the price of admission with a donation of cans

- Can the Boss
  Host a can drive at your workplace and fill your boss's office with cans

- Scavenger Hunt
  Create a scavenger hunt in order to collect the most needed items

- Bingo
  Make bingo cards with the most needed items list and see who gets bingo first

- Pick an Item
  Host a themed drive with a specific most needed item. Make it tuna week or peanut butter month

- Have a competition
  Host a competitive food drive with colleagues, friends or neighbors to see who can collect the most

- Be a Souper Hero
  Show off your souper hero skills by getting others to donate canned goods

How To:
Food and Fund Drives

Step 1: Register
Go to houstonfoodbank.org/fooddrive
It takes just a few minutes to sign up. Fill out the proposal form online to provide us your information and request supplies like bins and boxes. You can also request a custom donation page for your group/organization.

Step 2: Pick Up Supplies
After you register you will receive a food drive confirmation email with instructions on picking up supplies and what to do once your food drive is over.
Learn about donation drop off, pick up, food and fund drive ideas and most needed foods in our FAQ.

Step 3: Get The Word Out
Our toolkit on our website contains everything you need to be successful. From the most needed items list, printable posters to fliers and logos – we’ve got you covered.
Share your food and fund drive events on your own social media pages and make sure to tag Houston Food Bank!
